Jonathan Viera at St Matthew's

FRIDAY 23RD SEPTEMBER 7.30pm

This will be an unforgettable evening at St. Matthew's. Bob, Liz and Ian saw his show a few years ago at the Diocesan Clergy Conference and it was brilliant! Since then many churches in the area have booked him to entertain. His stories and songs have a Christian content and this is a fantastic opportunity to invite our friends to a quality event.

Jonathan Veira, Bass Baritone, celebrates 25 years on the operatic stage in 2010. Jonathan's 25th anniversary saw him on the Glyndebourne stage as the wicked stepfather Don Magnifico in La Cenerentola by Rossini. He has performed across the globe in a variety of roles and musical styles from Mozart through to John Adams.

Tickets are now available! Church members have a chance to buy theirs before we offer them more widely.

Tickets are £12 to include a glass of wine or fruit juice from John and Astrid at St Matthew's, and Bob at St. Saviour's.

Cullingworth Scarecrow weekend – Under the Sea

Diocese of Leeds

From the 14th July, the Church of England diocese in West Yorkshire & the Dales will be known solely by its official, legal name, The Diocese of Leeds.

The Bishop of Leeds, the Rt Revd Nick Baines, says, "Since the diocese was created in 2014, we have always legally been the Diocese of Leeds, but we were allowed to informally call ourselves 'The Diocese of West Yorkshire & the Dales'. The experience of the past two years has shown, however, that having two names for the diocese is too confusing for people both inside and outside the Church".
