Dear Friends,
I have just been packing up your lovely food parcels in cartons, ready for the lorry which will be leaving on November 23rd (as late as possible to allow for as many parcels to come in as possible!!) It is heart-warming to think of the pleasure those beautiful parcels will bring, and I would like to thank you so much for these and the wonderful donations amounting to £240! All so very encouraging- especially when there are so many calls on our compassion. It was a great pleasure to be with you and to share your wonderful harvest festival. Thank you for making Christmas brighter for some very lonely and needy old folk.
God bless and keep you all
Kathy
