Mavis Nevill

Many of you will know that Mavis was taken into hospital a few weeks ago. Her assessment seemed good and the plans for her treatment sounded very positive. It was great to see her at the Zoom services from her hospital ward, where she looked radiant and glowing.

She returned home last Friday but even before her return, her health had started to deteriorate and since the weekend she has become very ill very quickly. Yesterday she went into the Marie Curie Hospice and as we write her prognosis for life is not good.

She is filled with faith and is prepared for her journey ahead. In her words "She knows where she is going, and she has no fear of dying." Even in these latest days and events God has given many visible joys and blessings in good timings and friendly people.

Please pray for Mavis, Gordon and for their daughter Kate and family too.

Please be very considerate if you wish to make contact, especially during the Covid lockdown. Cards, prayers, and good wishes will all be very welcome.
