"I Know that my Redeemer Liveth"

Debating and Discussion Group

Exploring the themes of Belief, Faith, Doubt and Certainty

A series of six meetings between 20 September and 25 October

We are very grateful to John Chuter, who has put together this opportunity for us to meet together to strengthen our faith through exploring these four themes.

Each session will be structured around a biblical text and a piece of writing, music or art which will be sent out in advance of the gathering to get people thinking. The group meeting will begin with prayer and an introduction. There will be plenty of opportunity for debate, discussion, and challenge. These are not intended as "starter" courses, but rather an opportunity to delve deeper into issues of our faith. The debate and discussion are very much aimed at deepening and strengthening our faith; however it may also challenge our views and opinions whilst recognising and celebrating the fact that we are all members of one body in Christ.

If you would be interested in being part of the group, please contact Richard:
