Prayer

Prayer is an amazing gift! Jesus told us to bring the things on our hearts to God in his name and God will hear our prayers. If you find there is something on your heart, bring it to God in prayer. There is a wonderful acronym: P.U.S.H. : Pray until something happens. Why not give it a go?

FOR YOUR PRAYERS, THIS WEEK

- Pray for the people of Ukraine and the refugees and victims of war and terror.
- For Richard, Alison, Liz, Anna and our ministry team.
- For the team and our Bishops in the Leeds Diocese.
- For our Churchwardens, PCC officers and members.
- Healing to those who are sick and recovering from surgery, Joanna Rushton, James, Helen, Jacob Thornton, Ben Cooper, and those known to us.
- For those in poverty or debt as the cost-of-living rises
- For wisdom to those in authority, that they make the correct decisions for the country
- For a just and acceptable solution to industrial disputes in the country.
- For all those providing medical services in our villages.
- For the Church Youth Group and all who will attend and support.
- For farmers, particularly for working farms in the benefice
- Newcomers to Cullingworth, that we may make our presence and message known.
- Pray for peace and the leaders of nations currently involved in the conflict in Ukraine.

Sudan Evening: In Conversation

Interesting information about our diocesan link with Sudan is going to be shared at an evening event at Bradford Cathedral.

'Sudan Evening: In Conversation' will take place on Monday 11 July starting at 7.30pm and will be an opportunity for individuals and parishes to learn more about this diocesan link, and to hear first-hand about the situation in the country.

The conversation will be shared on Zoom at the same time - please click here for the link.
