FOR YOUR PRAYERS, THIS WEEK

- Pray for the people of Ukraine and the refugees and victims of war and terror.
- For our country and actions by our ministers that lead to growth and stability
- Richard, Alison, Liz, Anna, and our ministry team.
- For the team and our Bishops in the Leeds Diocese.
- For our Churchwardens, PCC officers and members.
- Healing to those who are sick and recovering from surgery, Joanna Rushton, James, Helen, Jacob Thornton, Ben Cooper, and those known to us.
- For those in poverty or debt as the cost-of-living rises
- For those who need help and support with their mental health and isolation
- For Helen Keighley as she prepares for ordination at Harden Congregational Church
- For all those providing medical services in our villages.
- For just and acceptable solutions to industrial disputes.
- For the King, for God's blessing and guidance in his role as Head of State
- Newcomers to Cullingworth, we may make our presence and message known.
- Pray for peace and all those lives that have been torn apart by the conflict in Ukraine.

All Souls' Tide

On Sunday 6 November we will be holding special services during which we will be remembering people who have died. It is a special time in the Church' year called "All Souls' Tide". The services are an opportunity to give thanks again for those we love but can no longer see, as well as acknowledging our continuing loss and grief, praying for God's comfort and peace.

There are services at each of our four churches:

St Saviour's, Harden: 4pm with Liz and Richard
St Matthew's, Wilsden: 6pm with Richard and Liz
St John's, Cullingworth: 2pm with Alison and Richard
Denholme Shared Church: 4pm with Anna and Judith

Just come along and you will be very welcome. It is an opportunity to invite people you know who are missing someone who has died. As part of our time of remembering we will also be flying pink ribbons outside the churches again. If you would like us to remember your loved ones by name in the services or to put up a ribbon to remember them, then please contact Helen on 07788 848830 or email: beneficehwcd@gmail.com

Journey with Richard through Revelation in Advent!

On our Facebook Page and our YouTube Channel from 1 December, Richard will read a chapter of Revelation each day, that's 22 chapters taking us through Advent towards the Christmas celebrations. Revelation is a book of the Bible that we often only hear in snippets. Like Acts it is a remarkable narrative, a story of the end times and the promise of God to those who follow his word.

WARM SPACE

All our churches are looking to offer a warm welcome as the winter comes.

Denholme opens from this week:

Fridays 12noon to 3pm and Sundays 4pm to 7pm

Harden, Wilsden and Cullingworth Warm Space starts in December

Wilsden: Mondays 12noon to 2pm

Harden: Tuesday 12noon to 2pm

Cullingworth Wednesday 12noon to 2pm

We will be serving Soup and Roll followed by an activity and a chance to chat!

If you would like to volunteer to help at these, please contact Richard.

Penny for your Thoughts!

After the popularity of my article last week, I have again put pen to paper with my favourite Saint's Quotation. This is a prayer of St Mechtilde of Magdeburg: "God, give me by your grace what you give to dogs by nature."

A wise prayer for any human!

The Children's Society

The Children's Society is a national charity working to transform the hopes and happiness of young people facing abuse, exploitation and neglect. It supports them through their most serious life challenges and campaigns tirelessly for the rights of young people in dreadful situations, working for social changes that will improve the lives of those who need hope most.

They've been doing this for 140 years - their role has changed and developed (at one time they were the Church of England Children's Society and were an adoption agency among other things). Their vision is, together with young people and supporters, to create a place where hope is alive in every child; to build a happier, safer society for young people to grow up in, one where they can look forward to their futures, instead of living in fear, often ignored and uncared for, or sometimes, much worse.

As well as working directly with young people, the Children's Society develops resources and delivers training to other professionals who work with children - from young carers to those at risk of being exploited, abused, and neglected.

So it's that time of year again! It's the time when we bring our Children's Society boxes to church to be emptied. But....so many of us, don't use cash in the same way that we did, and therefore can't watch our boxes fill up with spare change. I know some people still put their £1(50p, 20p) coin in the box every week, but others, post-Covid, rarely have change.

So on behalf of all the young people who are neglected, exploited and abused, can I ask you either to bring your box to Church and leave it for Debbie Child to empty; or if your box is empty and you'd prefer to donate, just give that to Debbie or leave in an envelope with a churchwarden.

You can also donate to the PCC of Cullingworth Parish sort code 20-45-14, account number 60703532. Please mark it CHILDREN'S SOCIETY

Thank you so much to all those supporters who have been supporting young people and the Children's Society for many, many years, Thanks to those of you who are new supporters – you are all making such a difference. To those who have never donated, we'd be so grateful for even the smallest donation – it helps! Thank you.

FANTASY FOOTBALL UPDATE

Lots of change this week with Denholme's Jenny Duncan taking the lead at the top once again. Right behind her is Helen Ludkin from Wilsden in second place with the top Cullingworthite, Basil Metcalf just a point behind in joint third. Harden are still trailing at the top, but Michael Richardson rises a place to twelfth. But at the bottom Harden's Pauline Stern mounts a challenge for the wooden spoon, just one point ahead of Denholme's Liz Beaumont in last place!! Good luck this week!

Fantasy Strictly Come Dancing

Jayde Adams leaves the competition meaning only 11 people now have all five of their dancers remaining in the competition. Tony Caunt is down to two, but still sits above Liz Moy at the bottom of the table. Lindsey Potter from Cullingworth keeps hold of her lead with Kimberley Wright from Harden rising into second, but losing a dancer on the way. Heather is in third above Judy Caunt from Wilsden. Joanne Lumbers is the top Denholmer in eighth. Good luck this week! Keeeeeeep Dancing!
